

If Anything

Wrekonize

I've been a friend you can count on, I'll be around long
Loyal beyond what you most will find
No fair weather one when we under the gun
I'll be looking for ways to be right beside ya
Anytime you need one by ya
You can look for me, I'll find ya
If things changed you would do the same
I don't doubt that, man, I don't need reminders, no

Who's gon' come in the cold?
Bring some sun when you feel too low
Boost you up when you can't control
Anything in this life and you just don't know
No friends ain't friends no more
Where did the real ones go?
Everybody star of their own damn show
But you can get me when you need to so

Hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything (yup)
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything

Anything you can think of, down for the weathering
10 toes down on the cold ass ground
I won't hold back now, I'mma ride on your enemies, whoa
Ain't no fake or pretend to be, no
This shit realer than ketamine slow
Feel that truth and it's meant to be
Everything I'd want from a real ass friend to me, oh
This feels like a bonfire
Burn it all down if you want, swan diver
If we get in the deep end
I'mma be the real friend
Find me at the wheel, getaway car driver
They were passing me by, far siders
Can't rely on these cats, part-timers
Need to vent? I'll commence with events
Build a 10-foot fence full of sharp barb wire

Hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here

Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything (yup)
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything (yup)
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything

Whatever you need
Anything
'Cause I'mma be right here
Whatever you need
I'm a real one, hit me if anything
