

Rich AF

Wrekonize

I don't need no million dollar chain up on my neck
Don't need no flashy diamonds hangin' on my wrist, ay yeah
Ain't ever need my name up on no list
When I walk in everyone know what it is, yeah yeah

Bitch I'ma be rich
Ay, ay
Bitch I'ma be big as fuck
Ay, ay
Bitch I'ma be rich rich
Ay, ay
Cuz I ain't ever give a fuck

Bitch I was already rich once, blew a million dollars in a year
Turn one zero into six figures
How I do that, make it disappear? Ha
Valuable so I'm always running
Came from rock bottom so I'm always hungry
Yeah it's always something, so I'm always huntin'
I just yawn and pause, go get a meal
A little bit insane I been designated to kill never replicated but iller than defecation I'm filthy
Why do you gotta be talking trash on a God?
I'm a father, battle with honor no hesitation to kill me
But I bounce back
No matter how bad I fall I'm ballin' on em in a monologue
The flow of water bottles like a porta-potty cuz I'm the shit a better body of water than anybody who want the Mortal Kombat with me

Bitch
I ain't got no money
If you got some I got yo money
Grew up, hit the streets like a road runner
And I make em shake like a snow bunny
I said bitch
Y'all don't know money
Make it stack up like it's old money
Sucked me down clean like a ghost buster
While I get the bag like it stole from me

I don't need no million dollar chain up on my neck
Don't need no flashy diamonds hangin' on my wrist
Ay yeah
Ain't ever need my name up on no list
When I walk in everyone know what it is, yeah yeah

Bitch I'ma be rich

Bitch I'ma be big as fuck
Ay, ay
Bitch I'ma be rich rich
Ay, ay

I don't need anyone's validation
I don't need a chain flooded with treasure (nah)
I came from sleepin on pallets to needin accountants I ain't ever been one t o go settle (on cuz)

I wanted to rebel cause I come from lesser
Worth more than diamonds I come with the pressure
You make excuses while I make a difference I can't ever go back to nothin (d on't let up)
I don't really need that much yah yah
I'm feedin my kids, they gon eat plenty
Life is a bitch, spare me yo pity
It is what it is, gon get me a billi I'm gonna be rich, rich
They don't like a nigga bout his business
Started out with nothin
If I'm keepin it 100 I was garbage yo but fuck it
This my vision (I'm comin nigga)

This ain't just bout makin dough it's bout takin my pain away
Nobody fucked with a nigga I had to think bigger my angels done paved a way

When I was younger made some bad investments what can I say Ben was bold
It ain't no secret I been manifesting I'mma make it back 10 fold
I been profitin off these words now for so long that I won't be deterred
They got on my nerves my pockets were purged and now I'm on emperor zurg
I'll be the bad guy when the cash fly till it's half-time then I flip
Into the ranks high give a black eye to a cash eyed little bitch
Black eyed pea with a Fab Five twitch
I been collecting a grip when I kick
These rhymes I'm Messi I'm itching to get
A figurative brick residual shit

Getting money like a brinks truck
But I don't really even give a shit about a god damn peso
This money can't buy me a halo
Well maybe it can if I say so
I could be knee deep in JLo
Raking in all of the payload
Solid gold new winnebago heating my feet in volcanoes
Sipping on cinnamon bulldoze the tenements
Paying for all of my friends and nem
PJ to places significant
Wiping my feet on a rug made of eminence
Life there isn't a synonym
Fuck you and pay me them dividends
I don't want any resemblance
I want the real thing it's sickening

I see dollars go like dominoes
I watch em all fall down
I play lotto no I say vaminos
I just hustle hard for the pounds

Anybody wanna get a little bit of money they can get Another job at the spot down town
I been looking to build up my wealth from the ground so

I don't need no million dollar chain up on my neck
Don't need no flashy diamonds hangin' on my wrist, ay yeah
Ain't ever need my name up on no list
When I walk in everyone know what it is, yeah yeah
