

We Can't Retire Hell's On Fire

Write This Down

It took one kiss to sell you out
It took one kiss to save the world
(Without me there would be no, without me there would be no story)

There was a moment where, we all felt 'oh so prepared'
(Without me there would be no, without me there would be no story)
There was a moment where, we all felt 'oh so prepared'

Run, run, run until you have to
Crawl, crawl, crawl until your hands
Bleed, bleed, bleed and then you will be
Safe, safe, safe and then you will be safe

It took one kiss...

There was a moment where...

Run, run, run,...

This dance will kill you
This dance will set you free

(We'll put your name to the test, We'll make you think twice)
