

Secrets

Written By Wolves

We all got secrets
So are you gonna keep it?
See, this is a weakness
Smile on the outside
Bottle up the deep shit
Come on, what's wrong with you now?
Sweating like a killer on the loose now
Is it that the rumours are true now?
I can keep a secret
But I think you better cool down

I know something that you don't
Maybe it might help you
My lips are sealed
I've been sworn to secrecy
But I am dying to tell you
My lips are sealed

Everybody's got something they're hiding
And the best secrets are the ones you don't keep
You can say otherwise but you're lying
And the best secrets are the ones you don't

Ones you don't keep
Ones you don't keep
Ones you don't keep
Ones you don't keep

What the hell are we thinking?
This is poison we're drinking
But while the ship keeps sinking
We raise up our cup
Here's cheers to extinction
And the glass keeps clinking
Bright lights keep blinking
Here we are on the brink
Acting oblivious
Just let that sink in

I know something that you don't
Maybe it might help you
My lips are sealed
I've been sworn to secrecy
But I am dying to tell you
My lips are sealed

Everybody's got something they're hiding
And the best secrets are the ones you don't keep
You can say otherwise but you're lying
And the best secrets are the ones you don't

Keep! Keep!
The ones you don't keep! Keep!
The ones you don't keep! Keep!
Keep!
The best secrets are the ones you don't

My lips are sealed
(And the best secrets are the ones you don't keep)
My lips are sealed
My lips are sealed
Lips are sealed, lips are sealed
(Ones you don't keep)

I know something that you don't
Maybe it might help you
My lips are sealed
I've been sworn to secrecy
But I am dying to tell you

Everybody's got something they're hiding
And the best secrets are the ones you don't keep
You can say otherwise but you're lying
And the best secrets are the ones you don't

We all got secrets
So are you gonna keep it?
