

To Tell You The Truth

Written By Wolves

Watch the stars as they're dancing
Like I'm caught in a trance and
I will steal every one for you
See you on the horizon
I will be lightening
I will fly for the night for you

To tell you the truth
I'd die for you
I'm at the door screaming, take me now
To tell you the truth
I'd die for you
I'm at the door screaming, take me now

The rise, and then the fall
The climb, the curtain call
It's yours, you have it all
Take me now
Your back against the wall
Blood rushes, bodies sprawl
I need it all
Take me, oh, take me now

You shine like a diamond
Pull me in like a siren
I'd abandon this ship for you
You're my favourite addiction
And I'm never quitting
Couldn't give up the taste of you

To tell you the truth

I'd die for you
I'm at the door screaming

The rise, and then the fall
The climb, the curtain call
It's yours, you have it all
Take me now
Your back against the wall
Blood rushes, bodies sprawl
I need it all
Take me, oh, take me now

Take me now, oh

Feel your breath as it heightens
Your chest start to tighten
Let euphoria surround you
Like planets colliding
You stare in my eyes and
I watch it ignite in you

To tell you the truth
I'd die for you

The rise, and then the fall
Take me now
I need it all
