

Ain't Great

WSTR

I know I've said it before
Loyalty and faith left on the floor
Go ahead and tread it in
Heart smothered in concrete so I win
Fuck you and everything you do
Call your bluff you'll call me a liar again
Unsure and left to feel ignored
If that don't work I guess I'll just pretend

It ain't great but it's OK
The situation is better than yesterday
Onto the next
Brush it off and adjust
Some days still feel like I've been hit by a fucking bus
But it's all good here
(It's all good here)
And it's all good here
It's OK it ain't great but it's better than yesterday

My get up and go once got up and went
Wasted days now time well spent
I won't revert to the world of hurt you'd see me live in
'Cause there's none given
Alone tonight but that's alright
I've got nothing left to do but
Seek new pastures sail the seas
But the worst of you rubbed off on me

It ain't great but it's OK
The situation is better than yesterday
Onto the next
Brush it off and adjust
Some days still feel like I've been hit by a fucking bus
But it's all good here
(It's all good here)
And it's all good here
It's OK it ain't great but it's better than yesterday

Moving on still not beyond my reach
Now I can breathe

Moving on was not my strong point
I'm pretty sure I've got it right this time
Now it's all good here

It ain't great but it's OK
The situation is better than yesterday
Onto the next
Brush it off and adjust
Some days still feel like I've been hit by a fucking bus
But it's all good here
(It's all good here)
And it's all good here
It's OK it ain't great but it's better than yesterday
