

I hope you see me on the TV
Would you think I looked cool?
Would it bring it all back
See me looking like that
Breaking all the rules?
We could make a lot of money
With your looks and my brains
And if it doesn't work out
Guess I'll just throw them out
And thank you all the same

'Cause baby, lately
For lack of a better word, I've been crazy
Feelings took a funny turn, sedate me
But I promise you, I'll never let us get us stale
As your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
But I promise you, I'll never let us get us stale

'Cause girl I found you in the gutter
The one that I've been living in
Why don't you just take my hand?
We'll draw a line in the sand
I'll show you where I've been
I'd be defiant if she liked it
But not too quick to assume
Because from what I've been told
She bathes in glitter and gold
And nothing else will do, no

'Cause baby, lately
For lack of a better word, I've been crazy
Feelings took a funny turn, sedate me
But I promise you, I'll never let us get us stale
As your ashtray

So you can mistreat me moderately
Just don't leave me like your ashtray
Oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh

Lately
For lack of a better word, I've been crazy
Feelings took a funny turn, sedate me
But I promise you, I'll never let us get us stale

Lately
For lack of a better word, I've been crazy
Feelings took a funny turn, sedate me
But I promise you, I'll never let us get us stale
As your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray
As your ashtray, as your as your ashtray

(Ashtray, ashtray, ashtray)
