

I won't wait up for you
In fact I won't do anything that you want me to Cos I'm still a substitute
Used to distract, procrastinated
It's hard to tell whose time we wasted
No need to tell me truths
Already read the clues
Follow up commitments
I know I know I know you don't like that
Hollow promises
You know you know I won't remember that

So now I'm just another fling that you'll regret
Now we're buried in resent
You offer terms I can't accept
So I'll just keep on running
Beat around the bush and then repent
I guess I'll sleep alone instead
You're good to go my head's still wrecked
So I'll just keep on running

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah

So sick and tired of ignoring
So why the hell are you still calling?
Said you and him were so perfect
Together forever
That's news to me darling
Hit the dust without a sound
To you I'm six feet underground
Don't look me up I'll be gone with no warning
Girl don't wake up I'll be gone by the morning
Like

Just another fling that you'll regret
Now we're buried in resent
You offer terms I can't accept
So i'll just keep on running
Beat around the bush and then repent
I guess I'll sleep alone instead
You're good to go my head's still wrecked
So I'll just keep on running

And I know I know I know you don't like that
You were reductive, I was reluctant
(You were reductive, I was reluctant)
You were reductive, I was reluctant to cooperate

Just another fling that you'll regret
Now we're buried in resent
You offer terms I can't accept
Beat around the bush and then repent
I guess I'll sleep alone instead
You're good to go my head's still wrecked
So I'll just keep on running

I know I know I know you don't like that
You know you know I won't remember that

So now I'm
