

Promiscuous

WSTR

What does it feel like to get clocked by promiscuous eyes?
Would I be alright if I tried all my best pick-up lines?
Rejection dancing through my head
Hope the tension here's unread
What does it feel like?

Now every dickhead in the room is eyeing you up
Keep your dignity sealed up in case you lose some
The drinks are mixing with the tracks that you think you love
Dismiss the voices in your head that tell you you've had enough
The sorry tale of drugs and how you use them

Where did I go wrong?
'Cos you're leaving
And you're with him
Invertebrate, you're spineless
Your dirty fate decided
I knew it all along

If you said we're good then I guess we're good for now
But if I hear more lies, in a bit bright eyes, peace out
Won't call you when I get home
You'll barely cross my head
Guess I'll just leave you to it
So nice to know ya (know ya)
The next day knows you don't wanna
But we both know that you're gonna
Get all up close and personal
So please don't take this the wrong way
But your mates can say what they wanna say
Cos you're out of my peripheral

Where did I go wrong?
'Cos you're leaving
And you're with him
Invertebrate, you're spineless
Your dirty fate decided
I knew it all along

I wanna know where I went wrong
Why am I on my own?
Please tell me what could it be
Already know
Will you stay
When you don't come home
You don't come home to me

What does it feel like
To get clocked by promiscuous eyes?
Would I be alright
If I tried all my best pick-up lines?

What does it feel like?
Would I be alright?
Invertebrate, you're spineless
Your dirty fate decided
Where did I go wrong?
