Got Love

WSTRN

I ain't got much but I've got love
I've been through some stuff, it was not love
This girl's on my mind when I wake like every day
And she's the reason I don't get no sleep
I even hit her up when she's at work
I tell her that I've got her and it can work
This girl's on my mind when I wake every day
She's the reason I don't get no sleep

Take my word, it's all that I've got
They can say that ain't enough
All that I have, I will give it all
It's not much but I've got love, I've got love

Yo, listen, I met her on my birthday, I was feeling suave
She stepped in, it was feeling like an earthquake
She ain't even fat though, circumstances were wack so
I'mma wait until she's ready, she knows where I'm at, yo
From day one, I've been tryna get a main one
Lord God, she looking pretty up in her A1
Black windows, matching her skin tone
Smoking on a loud pack, eyes looking Vimto
She's the type that I'll change for
No sneaking round the back, there's a main door
Loving tryna make more of it
And when it comes to trust, you can have all of it
I promise I'm on it, I'm being honest, I really want this
It is what it is, it ain't a rush ting
I'll wait a couple years for a buff ting
Sweet sugar dumpling, let me tell you someting

I ain't got much but I've got love
I've been through some stuff, it was not love
This girl's on my mind when I wake like every day
And she's the reason I don't get no sleep
I even hit her up when she's at work (working, yeah)
I tell her that I've got her and it can work (perfect, yeah)
This girl's on my mind when I wake every day
She's the reason I don't get no sleep

Take my word, it's all that I've got
They can say that ain't enough
All that I have, I will give it all
It's not much but I've got love, I've got love

Met her on a night out, booty knocked my lights out
Before you sign up, come find out what all this hype's 'bout
Lady, you be wavy in ways I ain't quite found
I'll pack it up if you back it up, just like your iCloud
Think my number, you should write down
Shit, like right now, so I'm giving you this slight scowl
Consequences letting you know we should get into it
Every movement telling me go, so I might now
Fast forward couple years now
Down the line, who'd have thought we would be here now, baby?
Could shed a tear now
So how you thinking it could break?

There ain't been a day where I've been thinking that Gin, there ain't been a day where I ain't drinking that See, I done been against the grain but I ain't into that
Now it's just visions of me and bae, how we interact
But now I'm into this love

I ain't got much but I've got love
I've been through some stuff, it was not love
This girl's on my mind when I wake like every day
And she's the reason I don't get no sleep
I even hit her up when she's at work (working, yeah)
I tell her that I've got her and it can work (perfect, yeah)
This girl's on my mind when I wake every day
She's the reason I don't get no sleep

Take my word, it's all that I've got
They can say that ain't enough
All that I have, I will give it all
It's not much but I've got love, I've got love
