

Never Find

WSTRN

The love is overrated so I chose the commas (oh nah nah nah)
I be juggin' for the good life, right through the summer (oh nah nah nah)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me yeah)

I'm looking at the bands and it chose me
Cold nights in my stoney
She wan' whine for me slowly
But I'm thinking bout the mulla low key
She a loose up, she a loose up
She want me right now and the future
She like rocks with the goose
Tell her man bye bye with my deuce up
And we do it again, we do it again
And we do it again, cause you know...

The love is overrated so I chose the commas (oh nah nah nah)
I be juggin' for the good life, right through the summer (oh nah nah nah)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me yeah)

Who you know that can treat you like a lady
Same nigga that can drive you crazy
My world I'ma give you that, maybe
Same nigga right here, will give you all the above
But that ain't paying no bills
When we get lost in this love, I ain't taking no L's
You will never find a nigga like me
Sweet boy but you know I keep a spinner on me
Ain't that where the bag at, tap that where the tab at
Card or cash cause you know...

The love is overrated so I chose the commas (oh nah nah nah)
I be juggin' for the good life, right through the summer (oh nah nah nah)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me yeah)

Ay yo, I said I know you'll never find (what's that?)
Never mind, phat pussy let me get the super size
Phat pussy lookin' like it come with extra fries
I'm the mac wid the cheese, affi get a slice
I don't think the love is overrated
Just the underline issues got us agitated
Not to mention when your intuition's activated
We don't really see it eye to eye
It's just mass debate
God walk with my niggas through the magistrates
Pray it never go crown court, bun her majesty
So tell me woman is it one man, to your pum pum ay?
Or is it nuff man? Cause if so...

The love is overrated so I chose the commas (oh nah nah nah)
I be juggin' for the good life, right through the summer (oh nah nah nah)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me)
You'll never find one man, who do you like me (do you like me yeah)
