I ain't never been no sucker, nigga, ay
I ain't never left when it ain't go my way
I was standing looking in the mirror, ay
Talking to myself like you'll blow one day
Mumma never raised no quitter, ay
We gotta keep it pushing to the bank, Brodie
Always say grace before dinner, ay
Cause Lord knows that I'm tryna change my ways

You see The Most High told me I should kick it, ay
Devil on my shoulder told me flip it, ok
I've been outside for a minute, ok
I'm just reasoning with spirit, ok
Art on my sleeve, I'm painting pictures, ok
Say you're a CEO so mind your business, ok
My baby mother thinks I'm outside for the vibes
But I'm really out here tryna change the world one day, you know but

I ain't never been no sucker, nigga, ay
I ain't never left when it ain't go my way
I was standing looking in the mirror, ay
Talking to myself like you'll blow one day
Mumma never raised no quitter, ay
Gotta keep it pushing to the bank, Brodie
Always say grace before dinner, ay
Cause Lord knows that I'm tryna change my ways

You see The Most High knows I'm tryna change, ok
Devil on my shoulder like just wait, ok
Mummy worried, ain't been home in days, ok
I just need my little space, you know
Only from myself I run away, ok
Me and them motherfucking jakes, ok
My nigga probably thinks I'm outside for the vibes
But I'm really out here tryna change the world one day, you know but

I ain't never been no sucker, nigga, ay
I ain't never left when it ain't go my way
I was standing looking in the mirror, ay
Talking to myself like you'll blow one day
Mumma never raised no quitter, ay
Gotta keep it pushing to the bank, Brodie
Always say grace before dinner, ay
Cause Lord knows that I'm tryna change my ways (Give thanks)
