WSTRN

(You play the victim all the time, yuh)

You play the victim all the time
Call me when you not busy thinking 'bout yourself ('bout yourself)
You can't flex on me if I'm happy for you (happy for you)
If you knew my story, you'd be proud of how far I came
You came on me and everybody else
Me, I don't be like everybody else
Don't ever think you've got one up on me
You ain't got one up on me

This year I be the most me that I ever been
Maggie in my system like it medicine
Told them niggas stop tryna be me, that life dangerous
My mama say that she gon' pray for us
Man, I had a lotta losing but my winning come soon
You don't get that same attention when you come through
"Hail, you weren't worth the trouble", guess who left the dumb fool
Dialing your number, I guess I was the one too
(Hey, yeah, yeah, yeah)

And I found another you in DM (DM)
It could've been me and you to see 'em
But it ain't no more

[?] coming from my ends (oh)
All this weight on my shoulders
They coming for my head
I ain't threatened, cold, sweating
When I'm up in my bed
But somehow I managed to keep my head high (keep it up)
We just Bee-Gee'ing, I'm staying alive (staying)
Why you sleep on me?
They still dream of taking my life
Shit, "a nigga run up on me"
But them niggas lie
When you say, "he ran up on me"
Don't you wonder why?
Acting like you don't know how I do

Fuck around, never know
I might have that burner on the [?]
[?] so you don't know who's behind

You play the victim all the time
