

Broke

Wulf

(Broke, broke)

"What a ride, a time to be alive"
Said the old man to the younger guy
Look around, you'll see it if you try
See it if you try
Golden fields, diamonds in the night
Ruby sunsets, velvet in the sky
Look around, you'll see it if you try
You'll be high on life
Without a dime

I'd rather be broke
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road
We don't have to drown in gold
I'd rather be broke
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road
We don't have to drown in gold

I don't know where this is gonna go
I've found my peace in taking it slow
In the present, I've learned my lesson
I'm ready to grow
'Cause now I know

I'd rather be broke
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road
We don't have to drown in gold
I'd rather be broke
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road
We don't have to drown in gold

'Cause I'd rather be broke
Broke
Broke

Oh, you're a treasure made of love
A masterpiece that can't be sold
Better know you're worth it
You're worth it
Oh, don't you know you're so much more?
More than all the things you own?
Better know you're worth it
You're worth it

I'd rather be broke
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road
We don't have to drown in gold
I'd rather be broke (Ooh)
We don't ever have to drown in gold
Come on over, let's hit the road (Mm)
We don't have to drown in gold

'Cause I'd rather be broke
Broke (Let's hit the road)
Broke

Yeah, I'd rather be broke