

Front Row Ticket

Wulf

Can we have a talk 'bout the other day?
Just wanna make sure that we're okay
So, are we all right?
So sorry but I
I, I had a show on my mind
Every single time I've been pushing you
Pushing you away to the lonely truth
The truth in which I
I didn't make time
I, I had a song in my mind

And still you're there in the crowd tonight
Between the hands waving left to right
I can be a pain from time to time I know

You're always head-shaking, noisemaking
Cheering me on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you
All I can give you
Head-shaking, noisemaking
Cheering me on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you
All I can give you
For that front row ticket

It could very well be the other way around
You in the spotlights, me in the crowd
Stealing the show, giving it all
Turn tickets into memories
Cheering for you and not me

I'm always head-shaking, noisemaking
Cheering you on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you
All I can give you
Head-shaking, noisemaking
Cheering you on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you
All I can give you
For that front row ticket

And still you're there in the crowd tonight (oh-we-oh)
Between the hands waving left to right (oh-we-oh)
I can be a pain from time to time (oh-we-oh)
Wuh oh, wuh oh (hey)

And still you're there in the crowd tonight (oh-we-oh)
Between the hands waving left to right (oh-we-oh)
I can be a pain from time to time (oh-we-oh)
Wuh oh, wuh oh (hey)

And still you're there in the crowd tonight (oh-we-oh)
Between the hands waving left to right (oh-we-oh)
I can be a pain from time to time I know (oh-we-oh)
But I know

You're always head-shaking, noisemaking

Cheering me on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you (whoah-eh-oh)
All I can give you (whoah-eh-oh)
Head-shaking, noisemaking
Cheering me on, in that front row
I'm ready to give you (whoah-eh-oh)
All I can give you (whoah-eh-oh)
