

Lonely Door

Wulf

I left the key
Under the doormat of my hotel suite
And even though I tried to call
Better late than not at all
Wonder why you still put up with me

I got three missed calls and a voicemail
Why don't you pick up the phone, boy?
At the seaside bar, sippin' cocktails
While the DJ's turnin' it up

You keep na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
I keep messin' up, but you still come back for more
I'm at a party, I need your body
Now I know what I've been lookin' for
Let me na, na, knock and tell you that I'm yours

I'm still asleep
Didn't notice that ya had to leave
Put a post-it on the wall
Sayin' that we need to talk
Wonder why you still put up with me

I got three missed calls and a voicemail
Why don't you pick up the phone, boy?
At the seaside bar, sippin' cocktails
While the DJ's turnin' it up

You keep na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
I keep messin' up, but you still come back for more
I'm at a party, I need your body
Now I know what I've been lookin' for
Let me na, na, knock and tell you that I'm yours

Na, na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
Ooh, I need to...
Na, na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
Not just anyone
Na, na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
I...
Na, na, na, knockin' on my lonely door

You keep na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
I keep messin' up, but you still come back for more

You keep na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
I keep messin' up, but you still come back for more
I'm at a party, I need your body
Now I know what I've been lookin' for
Let me na, na, knock and tell you that I'm yours

I'm na, na, knockin' on my lonely door
Baby, open up and let me in once more
