

Rain

Wunderhorse

Do you feel the rain?
Did it crawl upon your shoulders?
Did it coil around your name?
Did it slowly snatch the sunlight out
Of every waking day?
And you banish it, you vanish it
But something staring still remains
In the empty frame
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
In the quiet of some disaster
You will turn and face yourself again
'Cause you thought that someone somewhere
Might be calling out your name
As the fly inside the clockworks skews our futures
As they hammered on the page
Ain't it strange?
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel the rain?
Do you feel-
Do you feel the rain?

Do you feel the rain?
Did it crawl upon your shoulders
Did it coil around your name
Did it slowly snatch the sunlight out
Of every waking day
And you banish it, you vanish it
But something staring still remains
In the empty frame
Do you feel the rain?
