

Right Here With You

Wyatt Flores

Oh, I know that you question
When I say I love you
I can't say that I don't wonder, too
'Cause I ain't too good with words
And I know it hurts you
When it feels like I don't put you first

Oh, there ain't no doubt
I ain't walkin' out
I'ma be right here with you
You build your walls from the ground
I'm gonna knock 'em down
I'ma be right here with you

When solitude is self-destructive
And my attitude needs readjustin'
You're right there to make sure that I do
I know I can push your buttons
Lose your faith and what you trust in
But if you really wanna know the truth

Oh, there ain't no doubt
I ain't walkin' out
I'ma be right here with you
You build your walls from the ground
I'm gonna knock 'em down
I'ma be right here with you
I'ma be right here

When you're a thousand miles away
Or standing right in front of me
All you need is to hear me say

Girl, there ain't no doubt
I ain't walkin' out
I'ma be right here with you
And you build your walls from the ground
I'm gonna knock 'em down
I'ma be right here with you
I'ma be right here 'cause

Girl, there ain't no doubt
I ain't walkin' out
I'ma be right here with you
Yeah, it's true 'cause you build your walls
Your walls from the ground
I'm gonna knock 'em down
I'ma be right here with you
I'ma be right here with you

There ain't no doubt
I ain't walkin' out
I'll be right here
