

AEIOU

Wye Oak

If you speak my name
Use my real name
The one I gave myself

A word can suggest my likeness
As a painting
Suggests distance

But mountains are not pictures of mountains
Or the letters that spell the word
In the language we are speaking

The foundation and its meaning
Does not crumble underfoot
For those who do not have the word

They stand, stand
Regardless
They stand, stand
Regardless
