Doubt

If you should doubt My heart Remember this That I would lie to you If I believed it was Right to do

If you should think Instead I would forget All the lives I said Were not meant for me And meant for you

That would be the test I could not forgive Only that To doubt the only way That what was true before Is true today

What I have learned Of you Does not assure You bow before my will But I believed it then Believe it still Oh, I believed it then Believe it still
