The Louder I Call, the Faster It Runs

Wye Oak

[?] willing to pretend
We were not losing time, time wasted
Like any other day we will make the [?]
Thinking it is date, it is finally date

The louder I call, the faster it runs
The louder I call, the faster it runs
The quiet is ours, the work has begun
The louder I call, the faster it runs

I search for patterns, [?]
You can't have everything, and still you have nothing
So I take them all apart, and then I put them back
Sometimes it takes a long, long, long time

The louder I call, the faster it runs
The louder I call, the faster it runs
The longer the day, the nearer the sun
The louder I call, the faster it runs

The louder I call, the faster it runs
The louder I call, the faster it runs
The quiet is ours, the work has begun
The louder I call, the faster it runs
