Glass Houses

Wynette Tammy

Before things got to such a delicate place Before those sad reflections on your face I always thought that when it was over You'd be kind enough to let me know

Well I'll admit that there's a distance And we're both afraid to let it show

But you've had a lifetime coming to me And I'm not about to let you go

Two people living in glass houses We can't hide what we; re going through Some of the things that we've been clinging to Tammy: Aren't what they're supposed to be Two people living in glass houses We've got a fragile world at stake It only takes one careless word to break it into a million memo ries

We used to lock our worries inside Somehow we took it all in stride But all the walls we built around us Couldn't keep us from drifting apart Seems like everywhere we turn now Somehow there's something in our way

Two people living in glass houses We can't hide what we're going through Some of the things that we've been clinging to Tammy: Are there for all the world to see Two people living in glass houses We've got a fragile world at stake It only takes one careless word to break it into a million memo ries
