

Let's Build a World Together

Wynette Tammy

You say that you want me
Yes, I really want you
Well, how much do you want me?
Well, I want you as much as a child wants it's mother
Oh, that's how much I want you
And you say that you need me
Yes, I really need you
Well, how much do you need me?
I'll tell you how much can a man need a woman?
Well, that's how much I need you

Then what will you give me?
What will I give you?
Yes, what will you give me?
A garden of love that will live on forever
Oh, that's what I will give you
Then let's build a world together
One world, safe, together
And no matter what happens
I'll love you forever
And I'll give you love
And I'll give you love
Yes, I'll give you all of my love.
