

The Divorce Sale

Wynette Tammy

Who'll buy the table and who'll buy the bed
Who'll buy the memories the auction is set
Who'll bid for old love that's grown cold and stale
It's the grand divorce going going out off business sale

It's a grand divorce going out of business sale
Odds and ends from two people whose love don't gel
She will take the baby and he'll keep the house
At this grand divorce going going out of business sale

Who'll take this photograph of two kids in love
Make it more than a dollar friend cause that's not enough
Who'll buy their coffee cups where lips of love have failed
At this grand divorce going going out of business sale

There they stand in an empty room everything is sold
Hating to break away and walk out in the cold
Two grown-ups and a baby with nothing but themselves
It's a grand divorce going gone out of business sale