

Why they always act like I'm switching up?
Good things change, that's why y'all all the same
Still stuck in the present, tie the ribbon up
How can we move forward if we're dealing with the pain?
Kill-killers want the old me
I can't slow just 'cause hoes can't relate
And they wanna know the facts
And their bros wanna date
And they late for my trust
And I try to wait for 'em

But really, I don't really know if I'll be patient again, uh
That shit never pay off for me
Used to have nobody, now they all for me
That let's me know they're not at all for me, ayy
Why they always tryna tell me what I gotta do?
They ain't never been here
I can tell by they walk, they ain't from around here
I can tell when they talk, they ain't looking in the mirror

'Cause they don't know who I am, they don't feel the pressure I've got Old friends should stay old friends, man, they really shouldn't get involved with me
I been so high up, they never let me look down, it's disgusting
Every time my name come up in discussion, I just tell 'em

Please keep it on the down low
I can't hear it anymore, please keep it on the down low
They don't need to know what's going on with me
Keep that on the down low
I've been tryna stay ghost, so keep me on the down low

Why do you act like I'm foreign to this?
Nothing's important like this to me
You just ignored it, I'm keeping it four quarters
You know accolades never meant shit to me
Somehow, that always stays in your periphery
You can't just ask how I'm doing, you're contradictory
If you can't treat me like I'm the future, then I'll treat you like history
Please just be less, don't ask about it, damn
Mind's been too crowded, it's loud and How you gonna pretend like you know what this is?
My cell phone can't reach you in the distance
I wasn't ready to know what this takes
I mean, I wasn't ready to know that you a fake
I mean, I wasn't ready to grow up, so take it back
I mean, I wasn't ready to take out the trash, I'd wait

But I don't know if I'll be patient again, uh
That shit never pay off for me
Used to have nobody, now they all for me
That let's me know they're not at all for me, ayy

Uh, I feel the distance, I wanna stay
I know I need them for who I used to be
We can't relate, we relative, pain's all relative
And they all late to this bus
I-I feel the distance, I wanna stay
I know I need them for who I used to be
We can't relate, we relative, pain's all relative
And they all late to this bus
I can't forget what you made me
I can't forget what you made me
I can't forget what you
So just keep it on the-
