

Giants

X Ambassadors

When you're lost in the world
And you're wondering what you want
Say oh, a little bit of everything

Find a house, find a girl
Settle down, but it ain't enough
'Cause oh, you want a little bit of everything
Said oh, a little bit of everything

Oh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Oh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh

We could be giants
The last of the hometown heroes
The last of the hometown heroes
Bigger than giants
Tonight we're moving mountains
Bigger than giants

When you're hanging by a thread
And your hopes and dreams unravel
Think I know I'm giving upon everything

Take a look, take a look at your life
And maybe then you'll see
Baby, ohhh, they can't take away anything
Should've known they can't take away everything

Ohhhhhhh
Ohhhhhhh, whoa oh, whoa oh

We could be giants
The last of the hometown heroes
The last of the hometown heroes
Yeah, bigger than giants
Tonight we're moving mountains
Bigger than giants

Oh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Oh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh

Bigger than giants
We're bigger than giants
