

Rent Inside

X-left to die

It was so many years ago
You promised me everything
That night you were in nice blue gown
And I was so unerring
We met each other every monday
Without you I was nothing
My smile faded when I found out truth 'bout you
I was far-gone

(You stand me against love
You always made me lie) (ze živáku jinak text)
I'm born for suffering, memories are burning
My darling I rent inside

You left me when I needed you
As much as I could
Far away from anger is blue
I hope that it's not truth
Now I am bleeding every monday
Without you I am nothing
It crossed the line of fortune
I'm ready when I die
I'm far-gone

(You stand me against love
You made me always lie) (ze živáku jinak text)
I'm/Why you born for suffering, memories are burning
My darling I rent inside

Nobody feels like me, I can't trust you
Everything looks so free, but I still love you
All my life I'm waiting for the rescue
(It's) nevermind to be behind or want to see truth
And every human wants to know a secret of love but then they found out that girls are whores
Everybody please remember that life is short
And I'm here to revenge the innocent people who'll be hurt
And every motherfucker wants to own relationship
They are stupid and weak and they know only shit
Tell me baby please where are you now because I want to tell you that I rent inside
I have to rest but it's not a jest
Everything hurts me but I will be fast
I trusted you look like a slot
I loved you, you've never seen me shocked
'cause I'm here to revenge the innocent people who'll be hurt

(You stand me against love
You always made me lie) (ze živáku jinak text)
I'm/Why you born for suffering, memories are burning
My darling I rent inside
