Tell me you're misunderstood
In the back of the car as you cry
But you don't know why
Loving me ain't always good
Fuck a lot, fight a lot
But goddamn at least we try
Say "I want this forever"
Yeah, I want this for sure
Well, I want this forever, yeah, yeah

But it ain't easy, 'cause after all
Love's never easy, with me at all
And if you're honest, I know you'll see
That it ain't easy, with you and me

Go to sleep ti the sound of my voice
On a stranger's phone
'Cause it's late and I left my mind at home
Left my mind at home, yeah
I don't wanna have another conversation
But, I don't wanna have another conversation
Without you, without you

No it ain't easy, 'cause after all
Love's never easy, with me at all
And if you're honest, I know you'll see
But it ain't easy, with you and me

Oh oh, oh oh
Don't wanna need you now
Oh oh, oh oh
But I need you now
Oh oh, oh oh
Don't wanna need you now
Oh oh, oh oh
But I need you now

Wake up
So I cry myself to sleep
As you lay next door just waiting for me
Waiting for me to come over
Waiting for me to come over
And what can I say?
And what can I say?
When you're waiting for me to come over
Waiting for me to come over
