

Arms for Hostages

X

Our ships passed in the day
And our stars crossed in the night
You've said, "Paradise, is only far."
Oh, no, we will surely fall
Don't look, don't look, don't look down
I saw a Hornet and an F-15 Eagle
I saw a Tomcat fly over the rainbow
That must mean arms are for hugging
Wait, don't shoot. I'm only kidding
Don't look, don't look, don't look down
Shit, it was painful crashing through those branches
When you fall in love you take your chances
I realize that you can't fly, but sometimes I idealize you
Fly fly
Just hold on to my hand
Please just look into my eyes
Don't look, don't look, don't look down
Don't look, don't look, don't look down
