

Endless Rain

X

I'm walking in the rain though everything seems to be hurting me for some reason
There is only nothing
Just kill me now... as I roam forever
Until I can forget your love
To me sleep is a confusing narcotic that only quiets the beating heart
All my love seems to flow from my body like a heart felt memory
I keep my love for you to myself
Endless Rain, fall on my heart, in this wounded soul
Let me forget all of the hate, all of the sadness
"Days of joy, days of sadness slowly pass me by
As I try to hold you, you are vanishing before me
You're just an illusion
When I'm awaken, my tears have dried in the sand of sleep
I'm a rose blooming in the desert"
It's a dream, I'm in love with you Hold me warmly in your arms
Endless Rain, fall on my heart, in this wounded soul
Let me forget all of the hate, all of the sadness
I awake from my dream
I can't find my way without you

The dream is over
I can no longer hear the voice of your gentle words Floating off tear stained walls, so awakening in the morning
I'll move into my dreams
Until I can forget your love
Endless Rain, fall on my heart, in this wounded soul
Let me forget all of the hate, all of the sadness
Endless rain, let me stay evermore in your heart Let my heart take in your tears, take in your memories
Endless Rain, fall on my heart, in this wounded soul
Let me forget all of the hate, all of the sadness
Endless Rain...
