

Flipside

X

On the flipside of you
Spare change and thin ice is true
No dough and no dice
The runaround and bad advice
I got kicked out of paradise

Halfhearted, sweeping up the Last of the questions marks, the
Questions are always hard, the
Dark is so dark without your spark
Your spark

On the flipside of you
Everything's blurry
I'm in no hurry
Loaded and railroaded
Empty and exploded
It's always my turn to pay

Halfhearted, sweeping up the
Last of the question marks, the
Questions are always hard, the
Dark is so dark without your spark
Your spark

There is no upside
Only your flipside
That's where the dark side resides

On the flipside of you
On the flipside of you
On the flipside of you
On the flipside of you
