My words are fire
My fist is raised
I got a question
You can't answer
You hurt my sister with a doctor's hand
With boiling water and blowing sand

Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
To a promised land

The church is burning
Bullets are flying
You hurt my sister
She didn't do nothing
The sky is fire, the rocks are sighing
It's all so quiet at the end

Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
To a promised land

Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
Don't tell me I can't
Let me go free
To a promised land

It's all so quiet at the end
It's all so quiet at the end
It's all so quiet at the end
