Revolt!

You make me lose my mind, make me forget what's right,
You make me lose everything I always had to fight for,
Make me lose control, you make lose my soul,
You make me lose everything I always stood up for
It's time to take a stand, I've got to find a solution,
It's time for me to plant, the plant of a revolution

Revolution

It's time for a revolution
I won't be satisfied till violence has died
Now don't you know that you're the reason why the people cry
About the dreams you kill bout all the graves you fill
Bout all precious blood you always had to spill
It's time to take a stand...

Revolt!

Man I've got to come down, down to reality,
Conspiracy rules the world and we Can't close our eyes about the fact
That disrespect lets the world be divide
D in first, second, and third,
Though that will always be so and all I know,
Is that I have to show you that ain't right,
And it's our plight to fight for the rights of the weak
And that's why we need this RE-VO-LU-TION
