

Waiting

X

You caught my eye and I will never be the same
I'm ready, I'm willing, I'm anxious to know your name Could you be tempted to give me a chance And a few other things I need to know: do you love and leave 'em?
When you got them believin' that you'll never go

Oh you, you keep me waiting, waiting for you Anticipating, what can I do You keep me waiting, I never knew that I'd still be waiting
I wish you'd realize when we can confide Ah tell me, please tell me, you want to know what's really here inside
Is it love there in your eyes, or is it just a lie [chorus] - waiting for you

I see lyin' in your eyes, and now I realize that You, you keep me waiting, waiting for you Anticipating, think we're all through You kept me waiting, I never knew that I'd still be waiting
You, you keep me waiting, anticipating
You kept me waiting, waiting for you
