

Week End

X

This translation sucks.
I hear a knock on the door
closing in on my eyes
lost in the consciousness
is your whisper
Over coming a melting heart a faded portrait reflects my disappearing memories
At once and still chaotic hateful black heart closes in on me
A sharp, transient feeling in a single wave Becomes a 'hysteric' wind Stopping tears and held in feelings in a colourless silence
I've nothing to lose
Love me till the end
Except your heart
I've nothing to lose
Love me till the end
Except your heart
Blood flows from your wrists and body into the distant seas of time

Week end
Week end Week end Week end I'm at my wit's end
Week end Week end Week end I'm at my wit's end
Week end

I've nothing to lose
Love me till the end
Except your heart
I've nothing to lose
Love me till the end
Except your heart
No way out
I hear a knock on the door
closing in on my eyes
is your whisper

Week end Week end
Week end, I still love you Week end, but I cannot carry on Blood flows from your wrists and body
