

Homewrecking Era

Xana

Gimme those eyes, icy blue
Wrap your thighs around me
Like you're one of my tattoos
Yeah, I could keep all of your secrets
Cross my heart and hope I mean it
Baby, think of all the damage I could do
Say less
Push me on the counter
Call me Princess
Dying as you're slipping off my best dress
Wish I could say no
But it's hopeless
I'm losing focus

Right 'bout now I wonder if she knows
'Bout those pictures on your phone
Should feel guilty but you don't

I'm in my homewrecking era
Homewrecker
Got things I wanna do to you
Do, do, do to you
And I feel bad for a minute
Bad for her
'Til you make me feel so good
So, so good
I taste something bitter in my mouth
Probably how she's feeling now
Left my bralette on the ground
Homewrecking era
Can't help myself
When you make me feel so good
So, so good

Nobody fucks like me
I'm the girl of your dirty dreams
Take her home
And the silence is deafening
Do you miss me?
Swallow me like whiskey
Such a handsome liar
But I think she can taste me
I can give you what you want
Body like it's Renaissance
Singing when I hit the spot (ah ah ah)
Maybe we drank too much
And we called it love
Mighta fucked it up
Baby, just fuck me up, ah!

Homewrecking era
Homewrecker
Do, do, do to you
Bad for her

So, so good
So, so good

I'm the flame that keeps you warm at night
And don't I bring out the green in her eyes?
You like how pretty she is when she cries
She loves you so much, even the lies
We're both the one, but never the only
Just having fun, cause you get so lonely
Crown me the villain and hero tonight
Fucking me brought you together so nice

Homewrecker
Home "wrecker"

I'm in my homewrecking era
Homewrecker
Got things I wanna do to you
Do, do, do to you
Bad for her
'Til you make me feel so good
So, so good
Homewrecking era
Can't help myself
So, so good
So, so good

Gimme those eyes, icy blue
I got a taste for the drama
Spilled your guts cause I wanted
Baby, look at all this damage that I do
