

Tipsy

Xana

2 whole years have washed you down
Still, I taste you in my mouth
Thought this would be over by now
Ah, ah, ow

But now I'm tipsy, wishing that you missed me
And wondering if I still cross your mind
Well If you're asking, for me it happens all the time
Ah, ah, ah-m

Days spend in the sun
You make me laugh
And I make you warm
With your body all over me
On top and underneath
I want more

But now my body's overflowing with feeling
Like the drink in my hand that I can't stop spilling
And I look at this mess that we made
The one that just can't be saved

Your ghost haunts my brain like the taste of your name
On my lips, and I can still taste you, I still do
If only my pride never got the best of me
Then I never woulda said those things
And I could undo it, I could undo
Losing you, you
Losing you
Oh, losing you, you
Losing you

I'm checking up on your socials again
I know it ain't right but I just can't pretend
That I'm fine when it's late
And I really miss your face
I just wanted to know if you're doing okay

Yeah we'd stay up on the phone till the morning
Now I lay awake at night just mourning
I'm tipsy on the thought of your body
It's late and I'd love it if you called me

"Hello?"

Your ghost haunts my brain like the taste of your name
On my lips, and I can still taste you, I still do
If only my pride never got the best of me
Then I never woulda said those things
And I could undo it, I could undo
Losing you, you
Losing you
Oh, losing you, you
Losing you

Ahhhhhhhhhh

Your ghost haunts my brain like the taste of your name
On my lips, and I still taste you, baby I do
I never wanted to run back to anything more than you
And I still want to baby I still do
If only my pride never got the best of me
Then I never woulda said those things
And I could undo it, I could undo
Oh, I'm losing you, you
Losing you, you
Losing you, you
Losing you
I'm losing you, you
Losing you, you
Losing you, you
Losing
