

When the Mirror Cracks

Xandria

Took sense and madness as they come
This circus life has left me on my own

My expectations were my home
But when the mirror cracks- there's so much left undone

Who betrayed and who deceived?
Loss of what I once believed

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under this load
Will it ever end, where's my life?

Disastrous certainties once felt
My vast collection of a better time to tell

Knowing my worst enemy
Weak and helpless- is this me?

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under this load

Late comprehension, a new dimension, a newborn child in it's fragile world
(4x)

Feel I'm in a dream- scary scenes rush before my eyes
Wake up in a scream- this is real
Where's my paradise?
Downed my circumstance- innocence crushed under this load
Will it ever end, where's my life? (2x)
