

Forgotten Puppy

Xavier Baumaxa

Forgotten puppy,
Uncertainly wagging his tail from the left to the right
Forgotten puppy,
Everything's a bit scary and new, but the luck's on your side
Forgotten puppy,
Someone has left you and someone new's going to find
You, forgotten puppy,
After all you've been through everything seems to be going all right

Forgotten puppy,
Hard times have taught you to deserve your life in the fight
Forgotten puppy,
All you have learned in those freezy and unfriendly nights
Forgotten puppy,
You could tell the pack how to resist all those severe bites
Forgotten puppy,
It's only up to you when you turn on the final firelights
