

(Care 'bout money anymore)

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

Okay, I'm creeping up the block like a tarantula
Ruffle berries, special care canaries on her figure ah
Took that bitch to pass it to her friends, let's be generous
Carry on texture from Mulan, let me show you some Ice castle magic, let her have it, she can't get enough
Strawberry ship look like a fairy, let me pull it up
Now I can't, tell from who to what, I'm so tilted up
Must have flashed, Yen and Dan, Tony never gave a fuck

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

I feel blessed today
No girlfriend, no stress today
Never was a child, so I never got to play
You know crime pays, no minimum wage
It's closing time
Fishscale falls on my charm, moonshine
Midnight falls in the cold moonlight
Crimes get organized
Diamonds jumpin' out the gym
While I'm watching my husky swim
Can't imagine life any other way
Dale Dan Tony on a razorblade

Tip-toeing through the jewelry store
Christian Dior mink draggin' to the floor
I don't really care 'bout money anymore
Pay me in jewels while I'm pouring up a four

(Oo-oo-uh)
