Hypebeast clowns sit the fuck down [x8]
Everybody wanna do what I do, but they can't do it like Lezay, like Lezay

A lot of fools talk shit on me but then give me props
And then talk shit again, you niggas need to stop
Bitch I will go hard on the track if I want
But if I'm just chillin, I'll get on that bitch & walk
See niggas be like "Wulf, your first tape go the hardest"
"You be slackin now." I'm like Nah nigga stop it
See I ain't got no competition with you lame rappers
I don't even rap & you still can't out rap me
Damn man y'all just some true ass lames
If I go back to the old flow I'll kill the game
But I don't give a damn bout that rap shit mane
Cause all you niggas lie & you all sound the same
How in the fuck could you ever take aim
At a nigga like me that shit is just insane
God damn bruh, y'all so irritating mane
I could kill you fools in a trillion different ways (you bitch)

Now let me explain this confusion bout my name
I started off as Ethel but that shit got lame
I started feeling bad about using a fake name
One day I got mad because I didn't feel the same
My momma told me take pride for your own name
She told me I was king & I felt the damn same
So I said Fuck it, I'mma use my real name
And now I feel great but these haters mad mane
Talking bout "Xavier sounds stupid, why the change"
I said "Chill nigga, you a hypebeast lame"
Imma keep it real until my blunt lose flame
And that's the day I die as a legend in no pain
All you radio stations too damn lame
The bullshit y'all play make me wanna catch y'all fade
I'm smoking weed in silence on every rainy day
I gotta stay calm or I'mma bust up out this cage (you bitch)
