You can see me at the top looking down screaming what now
Tell them throw the towel they could never put the squad down

Switching back to me I'm rolling blunts just because the sun out
If I don't let her hit my weed she'll sit there an pout

What she want when I'm on my feet I got her looking up
Pull up to the scene she look so good I let you look at her

Squad coming up saying, "Wulf you know we fuck with ya"
I say, "same to you"
I shake a hand an tell um roll it up

Money man shawty but I don't brag that ain't my character
You can do the math I failed that class but I'm still counting up
Shout out Ms. Malone she tried to help but I ain't give a fuck

I was ditchin' school with TA tryna stack it up
5 dollar reggie blunts seeds in my old house
Shout out to Lil Rari cause I know what he talking bout

Now I'm down in Cali smoking better out a gong ounce

WiFi Kush because the smell reach anotha house
I don't give a fuck about who mad I leave um locked out
He pull up on me that's a story I ain't heard about

Switching back to us my whole squad got a blunt now
Don't ask me for nothing I tell a hating fool to figure it out
Now a days I see what my grandpa was talking bout

Switching back to me I'm at the table finna play it out
I don't give no fuck he test on me an I'm a stress him out

I pull up on his bitch on accident and I swindle her
She look up at me and said captain can you roll this up
I look down at her and said I only smoke that truth stuff
Now she look offended but I don't care cause I don't give a fuck
