

Do you remember how we were, were [?]
When we first locked eyes?
Do you remember when I told you
I will never leave your side?
I guess my best wasn't good enough
I guess my best wasn't good enough
I guess my best wasn't good enough
I guess my best wasn't good enough
Round and round and round again, all I needed was your hands
Round and round and round again, all I wanted was friend

Do you remember me, like I remember you?
I remember when I saw your face
At the same place that we last ate
We considered that our first date
I know you do, because I know you
And you could never, ever be that way
You think I love you, I think I do too
And you know I know you feel the same way
Do you remember me, like I remember you?
Do you remember me, like I remember you?
Do you remember me, like I remember you?
Do you remember me? 'Cause I remember you

Now my heart's beating faster, faster than the speed of light
Now my heart's beating faster, faster than the speed of light
And now my heart's beating faster, faster than the speed of light

And now my heart's beating faster, faster than the speed of light
