□□ □ What is in my brain?
So scared of being a paranoid, paranoid

I can't get you off my mind
In the empty mirror
It's just not my face
It's just not my face
I suspect someone again
In that mocking look
In those eyes, those eyes
What is in my head, in my head?

I can't trust anyone
Get out, right now
Stop it

I hate myself like this, no

Think I have lost all of my mind
Please just leave me alone now
Maybe I'm just paranoid, paranoid
I feel like I'm not myself
Changing, what is in my brain?
So scared of being a paranoid, paranoid

Voices that seem divided
Constantly whisper in my mind
As if I'm getting further away
Running away, running away

I want to stop now
What is in my head?
I can't bear it anymore, no

Think I have lost all of my mind
Please just leave me alone now
Maybe I'm just paranoid, paranoid
I feel like I'm not myself
Changing, what is in my brain?
So scared of being a paranoid, paranoid

You've killed my memories
It feels like I'll lose myself like this
But I'm not gone, not gone
Just like I am
Believe in me
I hear the voice of you
I hear the voice of you

Think I have lost all of my mind
Please just leave me alone now
Maybe I'm just paranoid, paranoid
I feel like I'm not myself
Changing, what is in my brain?
So scared of being a paranoid, paranoid
