

Seven Words

Xentrix

Another system released
Unrolled, controlled unpoliced
The latest mess incomplete
Wait the next move, all is pointless
Another system untied
Devolved, annulled and defied
These words a lasting goodbye
It's not for me, it's not for me

Say it for the lost
Say it in riposte
Say it as a reckoning
Scream it as a final warning
Save your words no more
Not one for all it's one for one
Say them for the worst
You know that's yet to come
It's only seven words of war
'The end of this has just begun'
Seven words
'No love lost, bring me the chaos'

The call that's hard to resist
Is the one to false reminisce
This feeling's hard to dismiss
Wait the next move, it's so pointless
Submit, evolve or depart?
Do you help your world fall apart?
Impulse is state of the art
Don't cry for me, I'm not falling

Say it for the lost
Say it in riposte
Say it as a reckoning

Scream it as a final warning

Save your words no more
Not one for all it's one for one
Say them for the worst
You know that's yet to come
It's only seven words of war
'The end of this has just begun'
Seven words
'No love lost, bring me the chaos'
Another gift of deceit
Bare bones, the scraps of the meat
Best word's the best of the least
Wait the next move, all is pointless
Another trick set to fail
Just another sting in the tail
Given words that lack in detail
Don't wait for me, I'm not falling

Say it for the lost
Say it in riposte
Say it as a reckoning

Scream it as a final warning

Save your words no more
Not one for all it's one for one
Say them for the worst
You know that's yet to come
It's only seven words of war
'The end of this has just begun'
Seven words
'No love lost, bring me the chaos'
