

The Red Mist Descends

Xentrix

I'm on fire
Bailing point infuriate
My mind is starting to burn
Raging storm
Building up inside my headspace
and there will be no return
Retaliate
The only thing that I can think
Confronting my enemy
Fear and pain
Crushed in the red mist descent
Feel the hostility

I will never back down
I'm prepared to defend
I crave the sound
Of your demise, my friend
Bring rage, bring fire
All you are just offends
Rain down hell to expire
As the red must descends

On the edge
No retreat and no surrender
This is the way it must be
Adrenalin
Heart beating fast
I cannot master control
What my mind's eye can see
Feel the surge
Step aside nothing can stop me
I'm exploding inside
Face too pale
I will bring down the hammer of hate
Lightless saint be my guide

I will never back down
I'm prepared to defend
I crave the sound
Of your demise, my friend
Bring rage, bring fire
All you are just offends
Rain down hell to expire
As the red must descends

Breathing hard
Bleeding strength through your weakness
I'll take you on one and all
In this state
I know no fear, I fear no payback
On your knees you will crawl
Choose your words
You'll be eating them before you know it
Of that you can be sure
Plague of hate
Swarming out within
I'm the disease and the cure

I will never back down
I'm prepared to defend
Bring rage, bring fire
Rain down hell to expire
