

For Your God

XIV Dark Centuries

humans torture humans - for their god they break its wills - for their god they nailed bodies to the cross - for their god they let pyres burn - for their god centuries went by full of war, death and sorrow and the adored god was not able to do anything against it but the god to which belongs their belief and their soul doesn't exist don't believe their lies, liberate the thoughts of your brain and have the courage to believe in your own power mothers sacrificed their children - for their god walled in alive - for their god they died of their pains - for their god The fire of their sins burns - for their god

but the god to which belongs their belief and their soul doesn't exist don't believe their lies,
liberate the thoughts of your brain and have the courage
