You're Worth It

xLooking Forwardx

You're worth so much more than how you treat yourself.
So much more than the credit that you give.
You deserve way better than they treat you.
But it's never too late to change how you live.

Letting people abuse you and use you for fun.
Breaking your heart just to feel like they've won.
To them you're just another toy.
They don't care if they steal your pride or if they steal your joy.

You're a beautiful creation no matter who you are.
Molded in the image of a living and loving God.

You can't lie to Him or lie to yourself. (Oh... Woah...)
We know the smile that's on your face.
And it's nothing more and nothing less than a facade.
But it's never too late to change your ways. (Oh... Woah...)
You get a brand new chance with each new day.
You're worth it - no matter where you've been.
You can change the things that lie within. (You're worth it)

You're worth so much more than how you you treat yourself.
So much more than you credit that you give.
You deserve way better than they treat you.
But it's never too late to change how you live.
You deserve to be happy no matter how you've felt.
And regardless of the hand that you've been dealt.
Each day's a new day to get past mistakes.

You're worth it.
Worth what time that it takes.
