

When Devils Come

Xmal Deutschland

Life is a jungle
So everyone knows
We win and we lose
That's how it goes
It's only a game forever the same
We fight for love and fight in vain
But what is hell can anyone tell?

When devils come in perfect blue
Whispering in my ears
And every word they speak is true
Knowing all my fears
When devils come, when devils come
When devils come, when devils come

Life is a treadmill
So everyone knows
We walk and we run
But a river flows
We laugh today tomorrow we cry
We come and go and don't know why
But what is hell can anyone tell?

When devils come in perfect blue
Whispering in my ears
And every word they speak is true
Knowing all my fears
When devils come
When devils come
