

Lies

XP8

You lift your whip to kill our will You smash us sore and we crush our souls
You pierce our flesh and yet we curse ourselves
You torture us to tears
But it's our thoughts we fear
Twist that spike into my arm
Then pour your rage onto my heart Kill the oblivious part of me, show me all the hate you feel
Only you into your eyes
Your heart so full of shit and lies
You're poisoning our minds
With all your vicious lies
you're poisoning our minds...

We used to have a past
But it got lost in noise
Our future cannot last Cos you have drowned our voice
Sensorial deprivation
A culture trapped in lies
Our penance's well deserved Cos we all decided to close our eyes!
You're poisoning our minds
with all your vicious lies
You're poisoning our minds...
I try to overcome my fear but nothing anymore is real if the truths i need are lies how can I hold on to life?
